Dear Visitor!

Welcome to Køge. Here you can stroll through our old alleys, visit the cosy local shops, explore our many small charming courtyards and have a delicious lunch at one of our tempting restaurants. On your tour you will also experience a totally new shopping area, Strædet, located next to the railway station and close to Køge's new cinema.

To enjoy a very special atmosphere, visit Køge Marina, or take a walk along the South Harbour, Søndre Havn, where you will experience, to the south, the building of a new recreational housing area. This project will make Køge more open to the sea and be a valuable connecting link between the various parts of town.

A host of scenic experiences are in store for you in Køge. Bring your swimwear along to dip your toes from one of our lovely beaches. Or you could dive into history, for example visiting Køge's Borgring, a Viking fort discovered in 2014.

Køge is an old medieval town offering plenty of surprises and things to do. Enjoy them all and look for great suggestions for walking tours, activities for children and adults on visitkoege.com

Have a wonderful holiday!

Welcome to the most service minded shopping town in Denmark

Køge is one of Denmark's oldest market towns, dating as far back as the year 1288.

With its cobbled shopping streets, old half timbered houses, cosy courtyards and Denmark's oldest Market Square outside Copenhagen – market days are Wednesday and Saturday – you will no doubt feel that Køge provides a total experience oozing with history.

A huge choice of exciting shops are awaiting you here, including everything from specialist stores to major chains. And Køge Marina and Køge Harbour are tempting you with some of the best restaurants in town. They all have one thing in common: they give you the best service possible in Denmark. For, as a matter of fact, Køge has been elected "The Most Service Minded Shopping Town in Denmark 2018-2020".

With its market and shops, the town
is a great place to visit.

 KØGE HANDEL

Old Køge

Kjøge is centrally located on Kjøge Bay, surrounded by wonderful wooded scenery. The beautiful old town, the villages with the historic manor landscapes and the coastline with the white sandy beaches offer many exciting experiences for both young and old.

Kjøge Mini-Town

If the whole family is to experience the city in a fun way, Kjøge Mini-Town is worth a visit. Here you can see an almost complete model of the city centre as it looked in 1865. All the houses are reduced to one tenth of their original size. It gives a fun feeling and a good overview of the old market town. In the Mini-Town you can also see how the old houses are built and how brick and tile are produced.

St. Nicolai Church

Kjøge Church - St. Nicolai Church - is named after the patron saint for merchants and sailors. This was done to ensure his protection of the professions that have historically been the most important for the city. The church tower rises above the roofs of Kjøge, measuring 43 metres. During summer school holidays, the church tower is open to visitors. In addition to the tower, the church contains religious stories and several elements from the city's history, as depicted in the impressive altarpiece and the tombs in the floor.

KØS - Museum of Art in Public Spaces

KØS is one of the world's only museums of art in public spaces and is located in the centre of Køge. The focal point of the exhibitions at KØS are the very special challenges and opportunities that art meets in public spaces. In 2001, KØS acquired artist Bjørn Nørgaard's 1:1 sketches for Queen Margrethe II's tapestries. The impressive sketches are on view in the Tapestry Hall. KØS also stages many other exciting exhibitions on art in public spaces, which you can read much more about on koes.dk.

Walk - the Thread

Køge is a city in rapid development. As part of the process, under the heading "The Thread", a route has been established as a red thread through the South Harbour (Søndre Havn) and on through the old industrial area. You can follow the route with the help of 18 steles, where you can read what has happened on each particular spot in the "old days" and what will happen in the future. The route starts at KØS.

Viking Castle at Køge

The Viking castle is an archaeological excavation, and you and your family can explore the world of the Vikings. At Borgring Welcome Centre, rare Viking Age finds are on view, and from the six-metre-high viewing platform you can look down on what was once Borgring Viking Castle.

The hidden ring fort is staged in such a way that you can sense its enormous size.

VisitKøge for more info

You can stay informed online about events and the area's sights via VisitKøge's website. If you need WIFI, you are welcome to drop in at VisitKøge, 1 Vestergade, where you can get free WIFI, or you can go to the internet café at Køge Library in Kirkestræde.

Køge is an old medieval town with an exciting history for you to discover, on your own or accompanied by a guide.

Town centre

First time visitors always come in for a surprise at the sight of the beautiful, well preserved town centre with its long rows of Renaissance houses still following a medieval town plan. So take a walk through the Renaissance town with your family, but don't miss out on the new parts of town where you will experience a successful mix of past and present. A free city walk guide is available, describing the old market town that was founded in 1288 by King Erik Menved.

For more in-depth knowledge about the interesting history of Køge, it is suggested to book a conducted tour where your tour guide will relate the details about the witch hunts called Kjøge Huskors and show you the pretty, well preserved 17th century houses plus a selection of medieval cellars, and, last not least, will point out the sites where some of the episodes of the popular Danish "Matador" series were filmed. You can book a tour guide with VisitKøge.

The Viking Castle near Køge

Borgring Viking Castle is located west of Køge. It was disclosed in August 2014, and the excavations established that it is a ring fort like Trelleborg near Slagelse and Fyrkat near Hobro.

See more details on Borgring on p. 48-50

Køge Museum

Køge Museum depicts the dramatic and touching story of the two young gunpowder boys, Pelle and Jens, who were killed with 600 other seamen on board the warship Dannebrog when it blew up in 1710. The museum's use of pictures, sound, computers and tablets gives you an intimate experience of the dramatic events that took place in the bay off Køge.

Lundekrog Agricultural Museum

Lundekrog Agricultural Museum offers young and old a look back on rural life as lived by our grandparents and great-grandparents. The exhibition displays a large collection of tools that were used within and without, testifying to a time that is actually not so far back in time, but to children of today it seems almost unbelievable.

GUNPOWDER, SKULLS AND LOVE

- Visit Køge Museum for an experience you will never forget.

Meet the two young gunpowder boys Pelle and Jens who were killed with 600 others on board the warship Dannebrog when it blew up in 1710. And take a digital guided tour back in time to experience everything from wedding dresses to the Viking Age and burial rituals in the Hunter Stone Age. Enjoy a break in our lovely back garden where the kids can capture the wrecked play ship.

Cycling

Køge is the centre of huge, annual amateur cycling races like The Girls Round (Tøserunden), Round Zealand (Sjælland Rundt) and Across Zealand (Sjælland på Tværs), but you do not need to participate in a race to get wheeling. In and around Køge, there are a large number of cycling routes to choose from, and VisitKøge hands out free maps of the area. You can get a cycling map on which 8 routes of various lengths are marked out, and also a map of Køge River Path (Køge Å stien), which is a 22 km long cycling and walking path following Køge River and the Køge Ås ridge.

Jogging and walking

The Køge Ås ridge is found just west of central Køge, offering a wealth of opportunities for great walking and cycling on its paths. Entering the ridge you will pass Gl. Kjøgegård Manor from where you have the choice of several paths, one of them leading past the cemetery Claras Kirkegård with the tomb of N.F.S. Grundtvig. The 22 km long walking and cycling path on the Køge Ås ridge follows Køge River from Køge to the Bathing Lake at Humleøre and from there to Borup Station.

Water and wind

On a visit to Køge you can enjoy wonderful beaches and beach areas on the North Beach (Nordstranden), adjoining Køge Marina, and on the South Beach (Søndre Strand) that is located near the local campsite. The many beaches offer fine opportunities for a fresh dip and they are also suitable for wind and kite surfing, given the right wind conditions. In Køge Marina, swimmers can now also have a dip in the harbour bath.

Nature
at its best

Køge is surrounded by beautiful countryside and lovely beaches, so you may look forward to wonderful scenic experiences during your stay.

Dyndet near Borup

Dyndet near Borup is a lovely moorland area with a bathing lake, a popular goal for a day out, located about 17 km west of Køge. Marvellous view from the ridge round the lake.

Kimmerslev Lake

Beautiful lake in a scenic area. A heart path encircles the lake. One of Denmark's oldest medieval mills, Kimmerslev Watermill, is located nearby. The lake is used for bathing and angling (fishing cards on sale at Borup Library).

Køge Å Path

A 22 km long cycling and walking path. This gravelled path starts from Køge Ridge, following Køge River to the west to Humleøre and further on to Borup Station. Part of the path is disabled friendly.

Køge Ridge

Køge Ås is the city's most popular recreational area, located just about 700 metres from the Market Square. A visit to the tall hills and steep slopes is definitely recommendable. The highest point is 24 metres above sea level.

Tangmose Wood

Tangmoseskoven is a cosy little wood on Køge Marina with control points for orienteering races (findvej.dk). The viewpoint Havhøj is also worth a visit with its unique view across the marina to the city of Køge. Highly suitable for a break on your cycling tour.

The roof gardens

View Køge from above from one of the public roof gardens. Bring the whole family along for a visit to the Exercise Garden, the Play Garden or the Wood Garden. The gardens are laid out above the shops in Rådhusstrædet from where they are accessed.

Beaches in Køge

Køge Bay is noted for its fine beaches with plenty of sand and highly child friendly bathing. Køge has three bathing beaches, Ølsemagle Revle, Køge Nordstrand and Søndre Strand in addition to the excellent harbour bath in Køge Marina.

Ølsemagle Revle

Enjoy the rich birdlife from the bird tower or a day on the wide sandy beach that has very shallow and child friendly waters.

Cycling suggestions in Køge

Your holiday activity could be a cycling tour through the scenic areas along Køge Bay.

One tour suggestion is to follow the Køge Ås ridge on the 22 km Køge River Path (Køge Å-stien) ending in the hills of Regnemarks Bakker outside Borup west of Køge. VisitKøge hands out a cycling folder including 8 different tours. The tours have a length of 6, 15, 25 or 45 km, all of them going through beautiful scenery in and around Køge.

Rent a bike from Garant Cykler in Vestergade in Køge

The folder is available free of charge.

Fishing possibilities throughout

Køge Municipality offers some of Denmark's most interesting fishing waters. Here is the alluring Køge Bay with its huge silvery sea trouts and fat Atlantic cods, in addition to pretty lakes with fierce predatory fish, and both Køge River and Tryggevælde River hold record big perch, pike and trout.

KØGE BAY is a unique brackish water habitat with a versatile fishstock and exciting fishing in store for you. The sea trout and perch have a splendid time here, and according to season you will also meet ide, mullet, garfish, cod and flatfish. Should you want a try at coast fishing, you will need a pair of waders, since it is often necessary to wade to the second or third sandbar to reach the belt of seaweed used by the sea trouts for habitat

ØLSEMAGLE REV may offer good sea trout fishing in spring and autumn. Leave your car in the public car park at the end of the road, Revlen, north of Køge. Be aware of traffic regulations, however.

STRANDVEJEN is on a stretch south of Køge an excellent place to go for sea trout. Parking is possible in a public car park near the water opposite Vallø Camping. From here you can go angling for 1.5 km to the south until you reach the preservation area starting by Vedskølle River.

SMALL BOAT AND TROLL FISHING is possible in the entire Køge Bay, with excellent chances to catch big sea trout, small cod and flatfish. There is usually also lee for the predominant Danish westerly winds. You will find a boat ramp with a pay machine in Køge Marina.

KØGE HARBOUR is very attractive during the autumn and winter months, offering extremely exciting angling for sea trout and perch. These fish enter the harbour from Køge Bay on their way to Køge River. They will be caught throughout the harbour area from the level crossing and further out, BUT do be aware that ONLY stationary bottom angling is permitted. For a total set of rules, see: naturerhverv.dk

KØGE RIVER AND TRYGGEVÆLDE RIVER are some of Sealand's very best sea trout streams. Both rivers also throw in huge brackish water perches. In addition, Tryggevælde River is noted for good pike and ide catches, and the uppermost stretches of Køge River provide full-grown river trouts. Day cards are required for Tryggevælde River and are on sale at Aktiv Fritid, Torvet 19, 4600 Køge aktivfritid.dk, tlf 56 63 15 33 or at Køge Sportsfiskerforening. koegesportsfiskerforening.dk

LAKE FISHING takes place in lakes like Kimmerslev Sø and Dalby Sø. Kimmerslev Sø is a 94 acre extremely clear watered lake, providing good pike and perch fishing in the months of spring and autumn. Dalby Sø holds excellent stocks of pike, and it also offers roach, bream and tench angling. Fishing licences are sold at Borup Library.

Five fishing platforms are available to the south in Køge Marina. They consist of huge concrete tubes covered by a cast deck with railings. Anglers have access to a shelter where they will always find a dry corner. You reach the fishing platforms via the path behind the jetty Bro 8 – and early birds will here have the opportunity to enjoy the sunrise.

- Persons aged 18-65 years must take out a valid fishing licence to be allowed to fish.
- The price for a 1-year fishing licence is DKK 185, and orders are sent via borger.dk/Sider/Fisketegn.aspx.
- In addition to the fishing licence, some lakes and rivers also require payment of day cards.
- Current preservation rules and times as well as minimum measurements are available here: m.fisketegn.dk

A person wearing a red long-sleeved shirt, black trousers, and white sneakers is captured from the waist down, standing on a lush green golf course. They are holding a golf club, likely a driver, and are in the process of preparing to hit a golf ball. The background shows a line of trees under a clear blue sky. The entire image is framed by a red border.

The Vikings arrived in Køge

Get all close to the Danish cultural heritage, exploring the Vikings' secrets at Borgring Viking Castle. Learn about the brutal Vikings and their mysterious ring forts on one of the guided tours while the researchers bring you up to date about their recent results.

Køge achieved world wide fame, and all at once 500 years were added to our town history, when in 2014 researchers from the Danish Castle Centre and Aarhus University could announce the discovery of a so far unknown Viking castle from the 900's a few kilometres away from Køge. It was the first Viking castle to be found in more than 60 years. The Viking castle, now known as Borgring, is located directly at exit 33 off the E47 motorway. With the discovery of Borgring, Køge has really written itself into the fascinating and dramatic history of the Vikings, and in the years ahead the most sensational new knowledge about Denmark around year 1000 is likely to be communicated from Køge, because the new castle is a goldmine of information about the world famous Vikings and their activities in the neighbourhood of Køge.

The Viking age ring forts are still quite a mystery. The total of five forts or castles have a lot in common, so they must have been constructed by the same master builder. But what were they used for, who raised them, and why did they disappear again? After the excavations of Borgring from 2016 to 2018 it is, however, also evident that Borgring is all its own! The archaeologists have not found any houses in the castle grounds as has been the case with the other ring forts. There are many indications that the ring forts were part of an overall demonstration of power by king Harald Bluetooth. A unique toolbox has been uncovered in the East Gate that may have served as workshop. Or the toolbox might be a sacrifice find? Small fine pearls have also appeared, which confirms that women, too, must have lived at the castle. But Borgring still holds many secrets that are just waiting to be disclosed.

In May 2016, Queen Margrethe cut the red ribbon to the attraction called Borgring Viking Castle, which has since then been open to Køge's citizens and tourists who have the opportunity to have a close look at Borgring, being informed about the answers that have been revealed so far in the hunt for the Vikings' secrets.

Start your visit by studying Borgring from above from the viewing platform, six metres above the ground, next to the Welcome Centre. The castle is set straight ahead, on your right you can glimpse Køge Bay, and between the bay and Borgring, Køge River meanders through Køge River Valley beneath the steep Køge Ridge – a wonderful area for walks.

It is obvious why Borgring was raised right here in the only place that offered a relative dry-shod crossing of the river valley in a south to north direction, making it the ideal spot to control traffic in East Sealand. Looking across the fields at Borgring today, it is hard to imagine that at some time in the past there was a fortress here in perfect geometric design, surrounded by three metre high ramparts and equipped with four wide tunnel gates, one in each corner of the world. Some of the artefacts found at and around Borgring are on view in the container beneath the viewing platform. From here, you follow the 675 metre long Defence Path towards Borgring – a journey that takes you 1000 years back in time through the defence of Denmark. Borgring towers like a landscape sculpture on the hill behind the river – 10 metre high steel columns mark the spots where the external palisade, ramparts and gates once stood. The internal diameter was 121.50 metres, the ramparts had a width of about 10.5 metres, the gates about 4.6 metres.

Visitors can join a conducted tour once a day to hear more about the archaeologists' work and preliminary results. This tour is included in the entrance fee. On arrival, you will receive a pair of Virtual Reality glasses that contain several hours of entertainment in addition to exhaustive information about the Viking Age and the excavations made at the castle. They also include interviews with the archaeologists and a virtual trip back into the Viking Age.

History, atmosphere & ambience

As a tourist in Køge Municipality you will find everything you could possibly wish for: History, atmosphere and ambience.

The municipality's biggest town, Køge is a very beautiful medieval town with a delicately restored centre and a wonderful market square, which is today one of the best preserved in Denmark of its kind. In Køge you will also find Denmark's oldest town hall still in use as the municipality's administration centre. The town hall dates from c. 1552.

The town has a well organised commercial life with shops for every taste. Several shops are hidden behind the house fronts in the old part of town. It is also here, in the courtyards, that you can enjoy a cool refreshment to the tunes of live music in summer.

Splendid natural experiences

The local countryside has great experiences in store for you: beaches in the east and woods in the west, such as the 22 km Køge River Path ending at the hills Regnekmarks Bakker and Dyndet, old bogland with a rich flora and fauna. Here is also a charming café, Malerklemmen.

Køge Municipality has an excellent infrastructure and good rail connections to Copenhagen as well as Roskilde and Næstved. By way of example, it only takes 20 minutes to reach Copenhagen Central Station from Køge Nord Station.

Arken

- A bite of Skagen in Køge

Restaurant Arken

- A bite of Skagen in Køge

We have brought along to Køge a small part of Skagen in the form of recipes, our service, our chef and the humour of North Jutland.

Our large varied menus for lunch and dinner are adapted to the changing seasons. In addition to our many fish specialities we also offer a wide selection of meat dishes. During the summer months more fish and seafood dishes are added to the menus.

We offer Denmark's largest seafood buffet every Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday during the summer months. The buffets begin at the end of June to finish mid September.

The buffets give you the choice of 60-70 different Danish and foreign fish and seafood dishes.

We look forward to welcoming you to the treasure trove of the sea.
